Pastor Darick L. Rutley, Sr. (of Berea Family Tabernacle of Faith church)

The measure of a Godly man is, often times, a reflection of their ministry vision and their obedience to the Father; Pastor Darick LaMont Rutley, Sr. is such a man. He is the senior pastor of Berea Family Tabernacle of Faith Church and the founder of an annual praise and worship conference called “Praise & Worship Symposium” (a conference geared towards providing information and demonstration of what God is looking for from his creation - Praise and Worship).

He is prepared to go wherever God needs him to spread the Good News. This in-demand worship leader, and speaker, has traveled around the country planting Kingdom seeds and has had a very successful music career. Pastor Darick has shared the stage with gospel artists like Marvin Sapp, Karen Clark Sheard, Kierra Sheard, Jamal Bryant, and Rance Allen, just to name a few. He was also featured on the song "Your Will" on, Integrity recording artist, Ken Reynolds' "One World, One God" project.

Pastor Darick was raised with very strong Christian family values. His father, Bishop Rosezell Rutley, and mother, Dr. Darafela Rutley, instilled a love and passion for the Word and the Father that shines brightly through everything he does. Though there has been quite a lot of industry interest in his ministry, Pastor Darick has remained a humble man.

Pastor Darick and his wife, Stephanie, have three daughters; Madisen, Taylor, and Morgan, and one son; Darick Jr.
